FAQs:

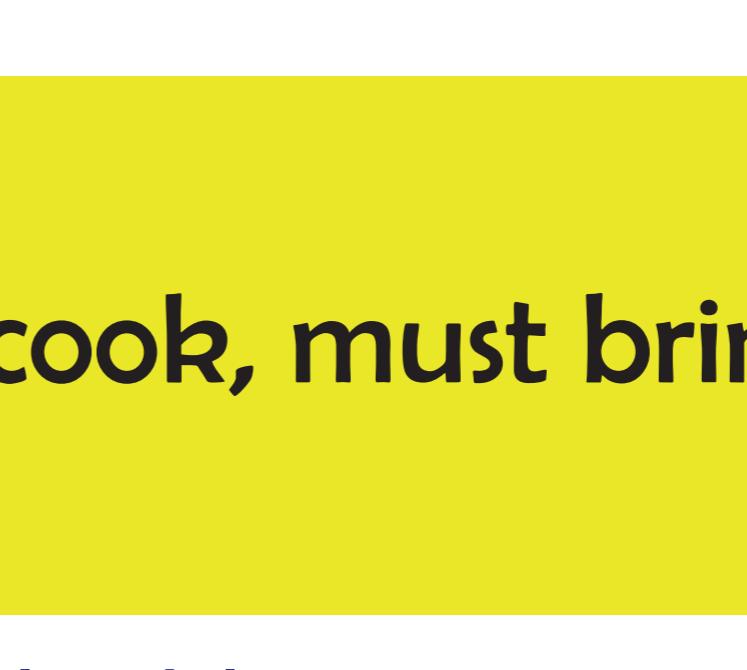

- 1) My mugcake doesn't get fully baked in this time.
Because all microwaves are different, so its not possible to give accurate cooking time. Bake for 1 min and wait for 1 minute for it to cool, then check to see if it is set. If not add an additional 15-25 seconds if needed. .
- 2) Can I substistute ingredients?
Its always the best to use the ingredients specified in the website. But due to some dietary restrictions or unavailability of an ingredient, you may have to substitute, but I cannot speak on how much it will affect the original flavor.
- 3) How to store the leftovers?
The storage instructions have been mentioned in each recipes. Please check the recipes to know more details.
- 4) The recipe didn't turn out as expected. What did I do wrong?
The recipes shared here are all succesful and well-tested in our kitchen. There will be many other factors as well for the bad result, and we cannot comment on that since we were not present in person along with you. But giving a little more information can help us troubleshoot the problem for a succesful turnaround next time.
- 5) What are nutritional information of the recipes given here?
We cannot give the exact nutritional information on recipes as we are not registered dieticians. But the calorie count has been given in all recipes and is calculated using online calorie counters.
